1 A. You know, this -- I think his red color in his face.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. And then what I saw him.

4 Q. And this --

5 A. And then what I saw that he grabbed her by the neck
6 confirms that he was angry.

7 Q. And I'm talking about before he grabbed her. You saw
8 him and determined that he was visibly angry?

9 A. He was yeah, he was kind of -- I mean, everybody who
10 was passing through the protestors got some mad face,
11 you know.

12 Q. And when you say a "mad face," Mr. Campbell had a mad
13 face as well?

14 A. Yeah. Yeah.

15 Q. And his face was red before this -- before he grabbed
16 her neck?

17 A. Yeah, yeah.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. I don't know why all the protestors were yelling before,
20 you know. I don't know what they were saying that make
21 these people more mad.

22 Q. Right. Then the last sentence of paragraph 13 says,
23 "Her oxygen tank made a loud sound as it hit the 24 concrete." Do you remember that happening?

25 A. Yeah, yeah.

1 Q. When she hit the ground the tank made a loud sound.

2 A. Yeah, and her tank is in her bag.

3 Q. In paragraph 15, talks about you questioning the policy
4 as to why Mr. Campbell wasn't arrested immediately.

5 A. Yeah.

6 Q. Do you remember having those -- any conversations like
7 that with the police or overhearing --

8 A. Yeah, yeah.

9 Q. Tell me what you said to the police or what you heard
10 them say.

11 A. Say if you say a black guy or a Spanish guy who hit a
12 woman we will be arrested already.

13 Q. You said that or someone else said that?

14 A. I say it.

15 Q. You said that?

16 A. Yeah. Because it happens many times if a African
17 American hits a white woman he will be shot.

18 Q. And what did they say in response?

19 A. They can't leave their position. They're ordered to 20 stay in the position.

21 Q. How many police officers were present when you said
22 that?

23 A. I don't know, maybe the second one, two.

24 Q. Was one of those officers black?

25 A. Yes. I remember an African American cop.
